

Ianimate

What I should already know

- I know how to use technology purposefully to create digital content, begin to save and retrieve pictures and text (Powerpoint, Microsoft word).
- I know how to select and launch a programme/app.
- I understand the purpose of a range of different technology, eg, tablets, laptops, microphones, cameras.
- I can use Technology Safely and respectfully.

What I will learn (Sticky knowledge)

- I can understand what an animation is.
- I can understand what makes a stop-frame animation.
- I can understand that an animation consists of characters, a stage, props, sound, text and a story
- I can understand the importance of a storyboard when planning.
- I can create a storyboard
- I can understand that animations need to be scripted
- I can understand that stop-frame animations involve physical characters, settings and props
- I can work in a group to achieve a target.
- I can create a stop-frame animation.

What I will learn next

In year 4 I will learn:

To understand what an animation is.

To create a scene for an animation.

To understand that animations can be created using digital tools.

To create an animated scene & To storyboard and create a short animation.

Isafe Learning

I will learn...

- To understand that personal information is unique to myself.
- To understand that personal information should only be given to trusted adults.
- To begin to identify the characteristics of people who I can trust and who can help me make choices that keep me safe.
- To understand that my emotions can be a tool to help me judge unsafe situations.
- To understand the importance of checking with an adult before participating in an online environment

Key Vocabulary

Animation	Taking lots of pictures one after another so it looks like its moving when played quickly.
Motion	A movement
Props	An object used during animation.
Scene	A part of an animation where something specific happens.
Script	The words that will be said in an animation.
Storyboard	A plan of a story that includes important details.

Key Questions

Who are your characters?

What is happening in this scene?

How do you make things seem to move?

What props are you using?

