3. Review School Curriculum Pledges

School Councillors worked in pairs to look through the Y1 Curriculum Pledge. Ms Tomlinson reminded School Councillors that a curriculum pledge is about the knowledge skills and attributes as well as the experiences and visitors that our school promises to provide for our Y1 children.

As it took most of the meeting to decide the pledge it was decided that there would be additional meetings on Thursday 21 May (pm) to look at Y3 and Y5 pledges and Friday 22 May to review Y2, Y4 and Y6.

4. Any Other Business

The School Councillors decided that they would like to organise an end of year talent show. They agreed it would be held on the morning of Tuesday 21st July. School Councillors thought they could sell tickets at 50p to raise funds for the School Council charity of the year. Councillors decided that there would be a voting slip on the reverse of the ticket and then everyone would vote for their favourite act and place their vote in a ballot box. There would be 3 prizes and Councillors would count the votes and announce the prizes in the afternoon.
